

7th Grade Summer Reading

Required Reading: Fever 1793 by: Laurie Anderson

Student will turn in the following worksheet regarding text to self, text to text, and text to world connections when they return to school.

Choose one of the books below for your book presentation.

- Esperanza Rising -by Pam Munoz Ryan
- Chasing Lincoln's Killer- by James L. Swanson
- The Raft- S.A Bodeen
- The Only Thing to Fear- Caroline Tung Richmond
- Scat- by Carl Hiassen
- The Juvie Three- by Gordon Korman
- Rules- by Cynthia Lord
- Schooled- by Gordon Korman
- Hoot- by Carl Hiassen
- Mockingbird- by Kathryn Erskine
- The Cardturner- by Louis Sachar
- Gathering Blue- by Lois Lowry
- The Upstairs Room- by Johanna Reiss

Student will give a 3-5 minute presentation on the book they chose to read over the summer. The student will present the title of the book, author, main idea, and any significant details. Students should be using their own words when presenting this presentation unless quoting material. Students will have until Monday August 18th to prepare for this presentation. Students will be allowed 5 note cards (3X5).

Students will be graded on: Time, the use of appropriate eye contact, volume, stress, pacing and pronunciation.